DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR THE WEEK:

We thank you, Father, for the privilege of living in a world filled with beauty and wonder, whose variety of experiences gives delight and inspiration; we thank you for the things that lift our hearts, that gladden our eyes and ears, and even for the things that challenge us and disturb our complacency.

We thank you for the gift of loving and being loved, of understanding and being understood, and for friendships that last the years. And we thank you for those who in music and poetry and art speak to our hearts, and whose words and images and melodies draw us to your love. O Lord, Creator God, receive our thanks and praise!

TODAY IN OUR PRAYERS: World Youth Skills Day today draws our attention to the high levels of youth unemployment there is in many developing countries, and the need to develop new skills and opportunities to counter this. In the wider Anglican Church, pray for The Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea, for The Most Revd Humphrey Peters, Bishop of Peshawar & Moderator of the Church of Pakistan, and for all who live in that part of the world. Pray for the church where it is persecuted or opposed, and for all who face discrimination because of their beliefs. In our diocese, pray for the The Bridgnorth Deanery. In the wider world, give thanks for the safe recovery this week of those trapped underground in Thailand. Pray for the peace of the world, for our own future relations with Europe, and with the wider world; for all places of fear and conflict: for the Middle East, especially for Syria and Iraq; for Afghanistan; and for every family where there is division: for all victims of famine or natural disaster; all members of the armed forces and those who work for peace. Among the sick, we're asked to pray for Sheila Mullaney; Ashley and Natalie; Alison; Elspeth Barks; Margaret Adams, Paul Peters, Tim Ross, and all who support and care for them. Remember all who have died recently, and in particular this week, Peggy Faulkner. Pray for their families, friends & all who mourn.
